

Le Refuge by Marc Ange for LJ Edition

The ever-instagrammable LJ Editions has a new iteration of their popular Le Refuge by Marc Ange: Refuge Gaillo Milano with a Dark Emperador marble base. "Le Refuge is a place where one finds comfort and peace. It is the projection of a childhood memory. Its large leaves form a shelter under the sun, away from reality, just like those of the imaginary jungle that grows in the room of a child who seeks escape," explains Ange.
